THE CONCEPT

Relaxed Luxury Living

Iconic architectural design makes Serena by the Sea a fresh, contemporary departure from standard luxury. The boutique seven-story property has 80 units and sits on expansive grounds – creating a sense of privacy that is uncommon in today's seaside communities. All residences are designed with open layouts, oversized terraces, and balconies that allow for breathtaking views of the wonderful waterfront and surroundings. Amenities abound across more than 23,000 square feet, inviting you for a leisurely swim, an afternoon in the sun, a workout on your own schedule, and multiple places to entertain guests, play with children, stroll with pets, and reflect on the rewards of a life well lived.

I followed my heart
and it led me here

Serena

Panoramic views stretch before me from every room. I see and feel the water everywhere I go.

A woman with long, dark, wavy hair is shown in profile, looking out towards the ocean. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunset or sunrise, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a soft glow and a bokeh effect in the background. The woman's hair is slightly tousled, and she has a gentle expression. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

My soul fills with joy and gratitude at finding this special place

DREAM DESTINATION

A stunning location, yearning to be discovered

Living at Serena by the Sea is a reminder that life can, indeed, be all you ever imagined. You can escape from everything and just watch the sunsets sink into the dazzling waters of Clearwater Bay. Or, you can take a short bike ride to the shops and sights of historic downtown Clearwater or Dunedin. Spend endless days on the ocean and nearby beaches, then spend your evenings enjoying the riches of your year-round tropical haven. Quiet relaxation or a carefree spirit of discovery... Serena by the Sea beckons you to make it all your own.

THE LAND

A hidden gem amid a global destination

Once the site of the quaint Bay Queen Motel, this waterfront retreat was a quiet oasis for visitors seeking the beauty of the sea away from the tourism bustle of Clearwater Beach. Since the motel closed, the site has sat empty for over ten years—and has been a favorite sunset-viewing spot for locals.

Postcard from Bay Queen Motel circa 1950s. Once a quiet motel, this is the site where Serena will start her new neighborhood story.

HISTORY

Clearwater Beach has drawn visitors for more than 100 years. The land was first purchased for $200 in the 1890s, and it wasn't until 1917 that the first bridge to the mainland was built. Before then, enterprising beachgoers took the ferry across the water to swim in the crystalline waves of Clearwater's famous shore. In the first half of the twentieth century, the beach was dotted with charming pavilions that provided tourists with shade, refreshments, and a place to change in and out of their bathing suits. Some of the pavilions were turned into dance floors, then restaurants, as high-rise hotels and residences brought a vibrant beachside community to Clearwater year-round. In 1962, Clearwater Beach gained another iconic feature: its breathtaking Pier 60.

Today, the booming destination is the regular recipient of national praise -it was named Best Beach in America by TripAdvisor for two years in a row, and is even the setting of several movies. Every day feels like a vacation in this special place, where residents and guests explore the Seminole Marina, enjoy the food and nightlife of Dunedin and Clearwater, and hop on the water ferry to America's favorite beach.
